

Maryland Department of Health
Office of Health Care Quality
Application for a Home Health Agency License

Instructions

Applying for a License

A person, partnership, corporation, or association, or any State or local government or agency thereof, may not conduct, operate, or maintain a home health agency in Maryland without being licensed by the Office of Health Care Quality (OHCQ). Before a person may apply for a license to operate a home health agency, the person shall obtain a certificate of need or an exemption for a certificate of need from the Maryland Health Care Commission (MHCC) under Health-General §19-114\(b\).

After obtaining a certificate of need or an exemption, the next step in becoming licensed is to complete this application. The application must be typed. Handwritten applications are not accepted and will be returned to the applicant. Submit the completed application and the required attachments through the “Submit a License Application” link on the OHCQ website. There is no fee to apply for a license.

Required Attachments:

1. Documentation that the Maryland Health Care Commission has determined that the home health agency has either received a certificate of need or is exempt from the certificate of need requirement. COMAR 10.24.01
2. List of the names of those that serve on the Professional Advisory Group.
3. Civil Rights Information Request.
4. Proof of accreditation (award letter and the most recent full survey report) or proof of application for accreditation.
5. Written notice if the facility plans to use an accreditation organization for the initial federal certification survey.
6. Procedures listed in COMAR 10.07.10.04.
7. Attach a copy of the declaration page from your general liability insurance coverage.
8. Letter of Good Standing: The applicant must obtain an official letter of good standing from the Maryland Department of Assessments and Taxation \(SDAT\) Business Express. Search for the name of your business, click on the business name, and then click on “Order Documents” in the lower right-hand corner of the page.
9. Workers’ Compensation: Attach a copy of the declaration page from your Workers’ Compensation coverage.
 - a. Corporations and limited liability companies who are not required to carry Workers’ Compensation insurance coverage must submit a Certificate of Compliance.
 - b. Sole proprietorships and partnerships that do not have any employees and who are not required to have Workers’ Compensation insurance coverage must submit a Letter of Exemption.

c. For more information, visit the Maryland Workers' Compensation Commission website, call 410-864-5293, or email wccinsur@wcc.state.md.us .
On-site Licensure Survey
1. After OHCQ reviews and approves this application and the required attachments, OHCQ will contact the applicant to schedule an on-site licensure survey. 2. OHCQ surveyors will conduct various tasks during the survey, such as a tour of the agency; interview of staff; and review of documentation.
OHCQ Determination of License Application
OHCQ will make one of the following determinations regarding your license application: • License Approval: If there are no deficiencies on the survey, you will receive a written report called a Notice of Compliance and a license to operate a home health agency. If there are deficiencies, you will receive a Statement of Deficiencies. You have 10 business days to write a Plan of Correction that describes how you will resolve the deficiencies. After your Plan of Correction is accepted by OHCQ, you will receive a license to operate a home health agency. - o Provisional License: In certain circumstances, OHCQ may issue a provisional license. COMAR 10.07.10.06. • License Denial: If you are unable to comply with all of the licensure requirements, then your application will be denied. If the application is denied, the applicant will receive a detailed letter explaining the reason for the denial and your appeal rights. • License Application Administratively Closed: An application is not complete until OHCQ has received all the materials required under COMAR 10.07.10.04. OHCQ will hold an application for 180 days from the date of initial receipt, after which the application will be deemed inactive and administratively closed. An applicant whose application is administratively closed may reapply by submitting a new application. Withdrawal of Application: An applicant may withdraw their license application at any time by notifying OHCQ in writing. An applicant may reapply by submitting a new application.
Parent Agency Outside of Maryland
Per COMAR 10.07.10.04, if a parent agency is located outside of Maryland, OHCQ shall issue a license if at least one branch office is located within Maryland or the parent agency is located in a state bordering Maryland and either the: (a) Bordering state has a reciprocal agreement for home health licensure, under which the agency may be inspected at the discretion of OHCQ; or (b) Agency agrees to be inspected by OHCQ.
Transfer, Reassignment, and Voiding of License
The license may not be transferred or reassigned. The license shall be immediately void if the home health agency ceases to operate and shall be returned to OHCQ. COMAR 10.07.10.04.
